

WENGER URBAN CLASSIC: Perpetual refinement and sobriety

WENGER'S response to the intense expectations of a society constantly on the move, passionate about sports and well-being, versed in architecture, arts and literature, curious about tomorrow and nostalgic of the past, the WENGER URBAN CLASSIC. It's an enduring yet trendy timepiece declined in gents and ladies executions.

Harmonious and refined, the WENGER URBAN CLASSIC collection distinguishes itself with a beautiful « guillochet » dial, as well as by the clean and sober design of its case. The hands and markers are coated with Superluminova, which provides excellent legibility in the dark.

The WENGER URBAN CLASSIC is a multi-usage timepiece declined in various executions, all fitted with a 3 hand date Swiss Made quartz movement. This timepiece caters to active watch aficionados who spend their time in the city jungles and out in the open nature.

Continuing the high tradition of quality synonymous with the Wenger timepiece collection, the WENGER URBAN CLASSIC features a sapphire coated crystal, 316L stainless steel case, 10 ATM (100 meters) water-resistance, a stainless steel mesh bracelet or genuine leather strap, as well as a limited three year international warranty.

In Switzerland, the WENGER TERRAGRAPH CHRONO is retailed between CHF 165.00 and CHF 180.00.
